ELUCIDATION OF
REGULATIONS OF THE REGENCY OF SOUTH BOLAANG MONGONDOW
NUMBER 6 OF 2024
ON
REGIONAL LONG TERM DEVELOPMENT PLAN
YEAR 2025-2045

I. GENERAL

The objective of the RPJPD for 2025–2045 is to ensure the preparation of the RPJPD for 2025–2045, which can contribute maximally to the achievement of the national long-term development targets and the preparation of the RPJPD for 2025–2045, which provides optimal space for regional development in accordance with the characteristics, innovation, and regional development.

In the framework of realizing the vision of Indonesia Gold for the years 2025–2045, the Region must develop a regional development plan as an integral part of the national development planning system. This begins with the preparation of the RPJPD document, which is a long-term regional development planning document for a period of 20 (twenty) years.

Regional development is an integral part of national development, and at the same time, regional development is also a part of the implementation of regional governance. In its implementation, the Region utilizes local wisdom, potential, innovation, competitiveness, and regional creativity to achieve the objectives of regional development, which ultimately will support the achievement of the national objectives as a whole.

The RPJPD for 2025–2045 will serve as a guideline in the preparation of the Regional Medium-Term Development Plan for each 5 (five) year period, specifically the policy direction and main objectives of the RPJPD. The policy direction and main objectives of the RPJPD are expected to inspire the candidates for Regent and Vice Regent in formulating their vision and mission during the contestation of the Regent and Vice Regent election.
